

HIGH SCHOOL CONNECTIONS

CRIMINAL JUSTICE TECHNOLOGY/ LATENT EVIDENCE

Latent Evidence provides an in-depth study of current crime scene processing techniques and procedures. Topics include fingerprint classification, identification, and chemical development. This program prepares the student in the basic skills required for entry-level employment as a crime scene investigator. Credits obtained in these courses may be transferred directly into the Criminal Justice Technology/Latent Evidence associate degree curriculum.

SEMESTER	COURSE	NAME	FTCC Credit	High School Credit
Fall	CJC 244	Footwear & Tire Imprints	3	1.5 S
	CJC 245	Friction Ridge Analysis	3	1.5 S
Spring	CJC 114	Investigative Photography	2	1 S
	CJC 246	Adv Friction Ridge Analysis	3	1.5 S
Total Credits			11	5.5

*Course prerequisites apply

Students must take CJC 144 and CJC 146 concurrently to complete the Latent Evidence Certificate.